

K-love serves Odessa Christians. It reaches out and touches the lives of some younger people. I like to listen to it also and I am 44 years old. It is good Christian broadcasting that has reached out and touched people's lives. It is listener supported so that should tell you something.